Don't Wait

Until your children get old and gray looking around for an old second hand rattle trap of a piano that some one else won't have, for the sake of saving a dollar. Give your children a chance to learn something on a nice new piano. Come to us and we will sell you a good piano at the right price. Green's Piano Store. 38-40

Old Residents Ill.

Mr. Alfred Douglas, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, has been seriously ill with flux for the past several days. His numerous friends are greatly alarmed over his condition.

The many friends of our venerable citizen, Mr. Alex Black, regret to learn that he has been confined to his home on Moberly avenue for the past week by illness.

The father of Dr. Sandlin, who has been a very sick man since Sunday, at his home near Kingston, is somewhat improved.

We handle the famous Kimball Piano, an instrument of international reputation, used exclusively by Miss Alice Nielson and among other famous artists.

You heard this piano when Miss Nielson sang here at the Chautauqua this summer. Didn't you like it? Come and see them on display at Green's Piano Store.

Madison Institute Opened.

Madison Female Institute, one of the oldest institutions of learning in the State, was opened with appropriate exercises last Thursday morning. This noted school always opened and closed with beautiful and appropriate services and many students and visitors present.

The opening Thursday was the equal of any ever held. A large number of students are enrolled, and the school bids fair to have the most successful year ever within its history. Prof. J. B. Cassidy, the principal, has spared no expense in securing an able corps of teachers, and the best instruction that is possible for a young lady to procure, can be obtained right here at home, and at moderate cost. Richmond and Madison county are fortunate in having such a splendid school, and it should be liberally patronized.

DEATHS

Mr. Humphrey Marshall Moran died at Campville, Fla., September 6th, aged 58. He was a native of this county and left surviving him, three sisters, Mrs. R. C. White, of this city, and Misses Julia and Virginia Moran, of Orlando, Florida. He had spent much of his latter life in the South. He has many relatives and friends in this county who will learn with regret of his untimely death.

Mrs. Beulah Young died Sunday, September 12. She was the wife of Ed Young. She leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her.—Irvine Sun.

Mrs. Young was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill, of College Hill and is a niece of Mr. T. C. Vaughn, of this city.

Miss Susan Crooke Yates, a popular young lady, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Yates, at Kingston, Thursday, morning, September 16. Deceased was greatly beloved by all, and during her brief life of twenty years, had earned the respect and esteem of all who knew her. While she had been seriously ill during the past few weeks, yet her death came as a severe shock to her relatives and friends.

She was a member of the Mt. Zion Christian church and was a lovely christian girl. Funeral services were conducted at the home Friday afternoon by Dr. R. L. Telford, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, and the remains were laid to rest in the Richmond Cemetery. The bereaved family and friends have the deepest sympathy of each and all.

Big Meeting

The Tates Creek Baptist Association met with the Church at Pilot Knob in Southeastern portion of the county last Friday and Saturday. It is said that fully two thousand people were present each day, making it one of the greatest meetings of the Association ever held in Madison county. A basket dinner was served on the grounds.

Popular Man Announces

Mr. LaRue House, one of the most popular young men in Madison county, has again entered the race for County Clerk, and his announcement will be found elsewhere in this paper. Mr. House made the race two years ago for County Clerk, and although defeated by a popular gentleman and splendid campaigner, Hon. R. B. Terrill, yet he made a fine record. He is a loyal Democrat, a good citizen, a faithful friend and neighbor, and would make a most excellent County Clerk.

Highly Honored

Recently the Executive Committee of the National Historical Society, of 30 East Forty second street, New York City, elected the following from this city: Prof. Chas. A. Keith, as Original Life Member, Founder and Vice-President; Mrs. Chas. A. Keith, as Original Founder. Mrs. N. H. Thompson, of Lexington, also elected as Original. Prof. Keith is teacher of History and Civics at the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School and is one of the most prominent educators in the country. Prof. and Mrs. Keith have many friends in this city and county and they have been the recipients of much praise from their admirers concerning the high and distinguished honors conferred upon them. The Climax-Madisonian joins these numerous friends and extends most hearty congratulations. The National Historical Society has for its object among other things the discovery, procuring, preservation and perpetuation of whatever relates to history, the history of the United States of America and their possessions, and the history of families. Again we congratulate Prof. and Mrs. Keith.

Notice.

Last week we were compelled to omit some nice letters on account of a breakdown in the mail. Send in your letters as usual. We want a good correspondent at Kirkville.

CO-OPERATIVE PONY CONTEST

Six more weeks decides the winner in the contest for the Pony, Harness and Trap given away in this contest band. Every contestant is working hard to get ahead.

Deposit your coupons NOW. By holding them out it may get reported that you are out of the contest and may cost you many votes that you might have gotten.

And remember that this is NOT a drawing contest and on the evening of November 1st, the contest closes and all ballots must be in on that date by ten o'clock. The votes will be counted by a committee of disinterested parties, whose decision will be final, and the Pony and Trap will be awarded at the OPERA HOUSE the evening after the count is made.

New Front

The store room occupied by Mr. Phil L. Wilgong, the wall paper and paint man, on West Main street, is being transformed. A handsome new front and plate glass show windows are being put in, which will add greatly to the appearance of the building. Let the good work go on. There are many other business houses in this section that need remodeling.

Sales.

At the sale of Mr. T. E. Jones advertised in this paper, on the 17 inst., Mr. Lew Spurlin bought 100 acres of the land and Ira Park the remaining 108 acres. The average price being $71.00. Horses sold low, mules and cattle sold well. Household stuff sold low.

A Card.

Please correct through your paper the report that was circulated through this city last week concerning me. It was a malicious falsehood from start to finish. Gene Arnold. 11
